7. Account Security

For customers affected by family violence, we will take additional steps to protect and safeguard personal information.

We have developed several processes and procedures to ensure, that where a person is affected by family violence, our staff:

- do not disclose or provide access to confidential information about an affected customer to any other person without the consent of the affected customer
- take steps to ensure that the affected customer's preferred method of communication is utilised
- create a record of any arrangements reached around account security

amaysim group – Family Violence Policy

Confidential information is referred to as any information that may be used to identify or locate an affected customer, including information about their whereabouts, contact details, financial details or personal circumstances. The reference to any other person includes a person who is or has been a joint account holder with any affected customer.

8. Payment Difficulties and Family Violence

We recognise that family violence is a potential cause or result of payment difficulties and will extend the full range of financial hardship arrangements to customers affected by it. We will consider the impact of debt recovery on customers affected by family violence, in addition to the role of any other persons that may have contributed to the accumulation of an arrears amount.

9. Language Difficulty

If we reasonably believe that a customer affected by family violence has a language difficulty, we will arrange for an interpreter to contact the customer directly.

10. Privacy

We will ensure that we respect your privacy and ensure that you have the ability to raise a privacy complaint in line with the amaysim group Privacy Policy.
